

Plans For Registering All Canadians Complete

Federal Members Nominate Registrars In Each Constituency Five Given If Questions Ignored To Be Held This Month

Plans for the registration of all Canadians having reached the age of 16 years were made known by Hon. James G. Gardiner, Minister of National War Services, in the House of Commons at Ottawa last month. Necessary legislation has been introduced. It is hoped that registration will be completed by the end of August. Members of Parliament have nominated registrars and deputy registrars for each constituency. Five given if questions ignored to be held this month.

All persons are required to attend registration booths on the first day of the month. The registrars will be written on registration cards. When dates are fixed registration booths will be secured.

HEAVY PENALTIES
If a person fails to register, he or she will be punished by a fine of $200, or imprisonment for three months or both, with an additional fine of $10 a day for each day of non-compliance after the first day of the month.
